Support for Students

A new skill for life! An amazing experience!

However, you may experience tiredness, home sickness, arguments...

... All which will help you to develop resilience, independence and perseverance!

Make lifelong memories with friends!

Trip in Principle

- At this point, we are gauging interest and hope that we get the minimum number of people for the trip to run
- To do this, we require you to pay your £100 non-refundable deposit by 27th March
- In the event of the trip being oversubscribed, we will run a ballot to ensure fair allocation of places
- For the safety of all students, we do not permit any student to attend residential trips where there is either an ongoing behaviour concern or a perceived health and safety risk. We continue to reserve the right to do the same this year (up to and including the date of departure).

Tour Operator – Halsbury

- The trip is being booked and ran through Halsbury, a local tour operator who have successfully facilitated
- Halsbury has cancellation policies, in much the same way as your family holiday would have. Therefore, if you sign up for your child to attend the trip and then they decide later to drop out, in most cases fees will apply
